

EXHIBIT 4

The project is “Not Applicable” as it is a storm water collection/treatment system improvement project and does not involve and new construction or rehabilitation of buildings or structures that would be subject to the state building energy code.